Family Loses Stereo, TV

Thieves made off with $508 in appliances Saturday night from the home of William Johnson, 4107 W. 175 St., taking a stereo, television, and other smaller items.

Mrs. Johnson said that the suspects entered a bedroom window and removed the items to the alley in the rear of the home. She said Torrance police found a knob to a television in the alley.

Although neighbors did not hear the burglars, as the Johnsons returned home, they saw a car drive down their alley without head lights.
